

TOWN OF HILL
SELECTMENS MEETING
DECEMBER 16, 2008

Present: Mike Brady, Mark Dow, John Lynch, Linda Henry (Assistant)

MISC: General discussion took place regarding the highway dept. Mike reported that the issue with the bus using Bunker Hill Rd. was tabled by the school board and is no longer a concern. Discussed employee wages and the salary of the town clerk/tax collector in light of the proposed significant increase in the librarian's wages for 2009. Also discussed options for installing additional lighting at the transfer station. A supplemental intent to cut was signed for Seymour Goldberg (R8-13, R7-6, 10, 11, 12). A building permit was approved for Ron Trudel of 31 10th Mountain Rd. (V-150-3) to build a garage.

POLICE CHIEF: Dave Kratz was informed that he will now have to be the acting Emergency Management Director. We are in need of a volunteer for this position, but at the moment he will have to assume the responsibility. Dave said he is expecting all of the bids for the new cruiser to be in by next week. Tim Woodward was sworn in as our new part-time officer.

The December 23rd meeting will be cancelled due to the holidays.

With no further business to conduct, the meeting adjourned at 8:15PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Linda J. Henry
