

TOWN OF HILL
SELECTMENS MEETING
DECEMBER 9, 2008

Present: Mike Brady, Mark Dow, John Lynch, Linda Henry (Assistant)

HIGHWAY DEPT: Tim Henry reported on general highway dept. business in Dean's absence. John expressed concern about the possibility of the school bus changing their route to go down Bunker Hill Rd. The conditions of the road pose serious risks that will be brought to the School Board's attention at the meeting tomorrow night. Tim also brought up a personnel matter.

POLICE DEPT: Dave Kratz stopped in briefly to see if the Board needed anything from him. The Selectmen signed the appointment form for Tim Woodward to be a part time officer.

MISC: Mark reported that he took care of getting rid of the used oil at the transfer station. He said there is quite a bit of anti-freeze on the bottom of the tank. Personnel policies were discussed regarding sick and personal time as we are in the process of updating the policies. John reported on the road improvements meeting the other night. Selectmen signed a supplemental intent to cut for Lucy Natkiel (R13-30).

NON PUBLIC SESSION: Selectmen entered into nps at 7:40PM at the request of Desiree Mahurin, Town Clerk/Tax Collector. She presented some issues of concern. Nps ended at 8:30PM.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Linda J. Henry
