

TOWN OF HILL
SELECTMENS MEETING
AUGUST 11, 2009

Present: Mike Brady, John Lynch, Linda Henry (Assistant)

POLICE DEPT: Chief Kratz asked if Commerce St. could be closed during the annual customer appreciation day held at the Hill Store this coming Sunday. Selectmen said it would be ok to close off the section between the Fire Department and Crescent St. Chief Kratz informed the Board that he may be recruiting a new officer.

MISC: A building permit was approved for Grace Hammond (R4-22) to build a garage with study and bathroom. Approved an intent to cut for Bootjack Road, LLC (R6-8). General discussion ensued regarding school payments, revenues and tax anticipation notes if the need arises. Selectmen signed the MS-1 extension request due to the cyclical update, which will not be done by Sept. 1st.

WATER DEPT: Gerry Desrochers stopped in to have Mike sign the notice of award for contract #3 for the water project as rural development has concurred with the choice.

With no further business to conduct, the meeting adjourned at 8pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Linda J. Henry
