

TOWN OF HILL
SELECTMEN'S MEETING
APRIL 6, 2010

Present: Mike Brady, Mark Dow, John Lynch, Linda Henry (Assistant)

LIAM NELSON: Mr. Nelson from the Andover Snowmobile Club asked permission to build a bridge on town land. The Board was not sure that the land belongs to the town, but if it does they have no problem with this.

FIRE DEPT: Chief Ford stopped in briefly. No business to conduct.

POLICE DEPT: Chief Kratz stopped in. No business to conduct.

MISC: Mike reported that Rick Vincent had called him at home about the assessing proposal. Mike told him that we don't require the assessor to be in the office on any particular days.

The letter requesting the interest from the Ferrin Fund was signed.

Selectmen reviewed the assessing proposal that was received.

A meeting will be arranged to meet with Donald Spring to discuss the flood control land assessing proposal. The town attorney will be asked if he has reviewed it and if there are any issues of concern.

A building permit was approved for Ernie Elliott of 16 Crescent St. (V-10).

An intent to cut was approved for A.J. Coleman to do with the Borough Rd. Bridge construction project.

Mike Stanley was re-appointed as Trustee of the Trust Funds for one year.

Selectmen discussed wage increases and determined they would become effective April 1st.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Linda J. Henry
